

Quadraphonic Mirrored Tube

Review by Reginald McCabe of Essendon North

What? I don't think I know where I am. At any rate, this comedy thing my idiot son dragged me along to was dreadful. There were no mentions of crockery and I forgot to put in my eye drops. I expect tap dancing in my entertainment and That is Irish Kelpie exhibited very little. Once I tripped over on the way to the bakery, yet the show made no reference to this event, or if they did it was too subtle for a man with no eye drops to notice.
